Additional Information

This former coaching inn, nestled amongst the forest in the hamlet of les Frasserands at the upper part of the Valley, dates from the 1850s. Extended in the 1960s, the property retains much of its original character but merits extensive renovation, providing considerable potential.

- Tranquil location in the Frasserands area, close to le Tour
- South-facing, open views including dramatic views of the Aiguilles Rouges
- Renovation and extension potential
- Full of character with many original features retained
